Upon release from imprisonment, the defendant shall be on re-supervised release for a term of THIRTY-SIX (36) months.

Special Conditions: The Court re-imposes all of the original and special conditions that were initially imposed on December 8, 2006: the offender shall participate in a program of testing and treatment for drug and/or alcohol abuse, as directed by the Probation Office; and the Court adds a special condition that immediately upon release from custody, the offender shall be placed on the Location Monitoring Program for a period of 60 consecutive days. During this time, the defendant shall remain at his place of residence at all times and shall not leave except when such leave is approved in advance by the U.S. Probation Office. The defendant shall be monitored by a form of location monitoring as determined by the Probation Office. The defendant shall comply with location monitoring procedures specified by the Probation Office and abide by all associated technology requirements. The Court orders that the defendant not be required to pay the costs associated with such monitoring.

For offenses committed on or after September 13, 1994: The defendant shall refrain from any unlawful use of a controlled substance. The defendant shall submit to one drug test within 15 days of release from imprisonment and at least two periodic drug tests thereafter, as directed by the probation officer.

☐ The above drug testing condition is suspended based on the court's determination that the defendant poses a low risk of future substance abuse. (Check, if applicable)

☐ The defendant shall participate in an approved program for domestic violence. (Check, if applicable)

☒ The defendant shall not possess a firearm, destructive device, or any other dangerous weapon.

If this judgment imposes a fine or a restitution obligation, it shall be a condition of supervised release that the defendant pay any such fine or restitution that remains unpaid at the commencement of the term of supervised release in accordance with the Schedule of Payments set forth in the Criminal Monetary Penalties sheet of this judgment. The defendant shall report to the probation office in the district to which the defendant is released within 72 hours of release from the custody of the Bureau of Prisons.
